today's story

MARY & MARTHA

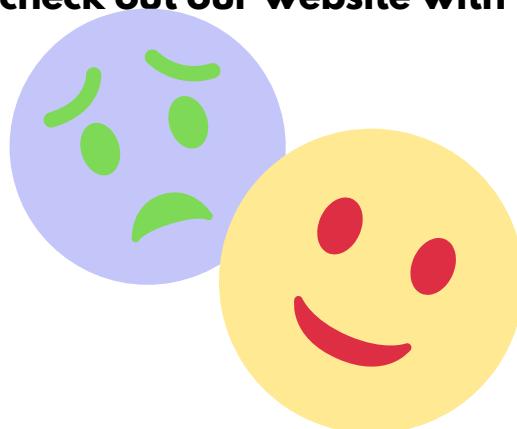

So it was a lovely start to the day - and we met Moe and his friends, although he doesn't seem to talk? Do you think that's just because he is a sloth and very, very lazy or because he speaks another language or is he just cross that we have invaded his nice, quiet island? But then, just as we were all packing to leave and set sail for our next destination there was a little hiccup.....or maybe quite a big hiccup....Josh has lost the boat!

How can you lose a boat that big???? Especially when it is your job to navigate. Oh dear Josh - what are you going to do? Kesia was quite worried wasn't she? Captain David had to calm her down by telling her the story of Mary and Martha. Martha was always busy - cooking, cleaning, doing all the jobs and she worried that things wouldn't get done. But Mary would just sit at Jesus' feet and listen to him. This made Martha a bit cross but Jesus explained to her that there will always be things to worry about and when we sit and listen to Jesus he can help us with them.

David explained that we all have times that worry us, in all sorts of ways – at home, at school, everywhere – but Jesus reassures that he's with us when we worry, helping us – and it is important to spend time with him. He can be with us whatever we are worrying about as it says in our theme song: Through every storm of life, I know you're by my side, so I am holding on to your promises....you never let go of me. Do check out our website with links to all the songs and lots more!

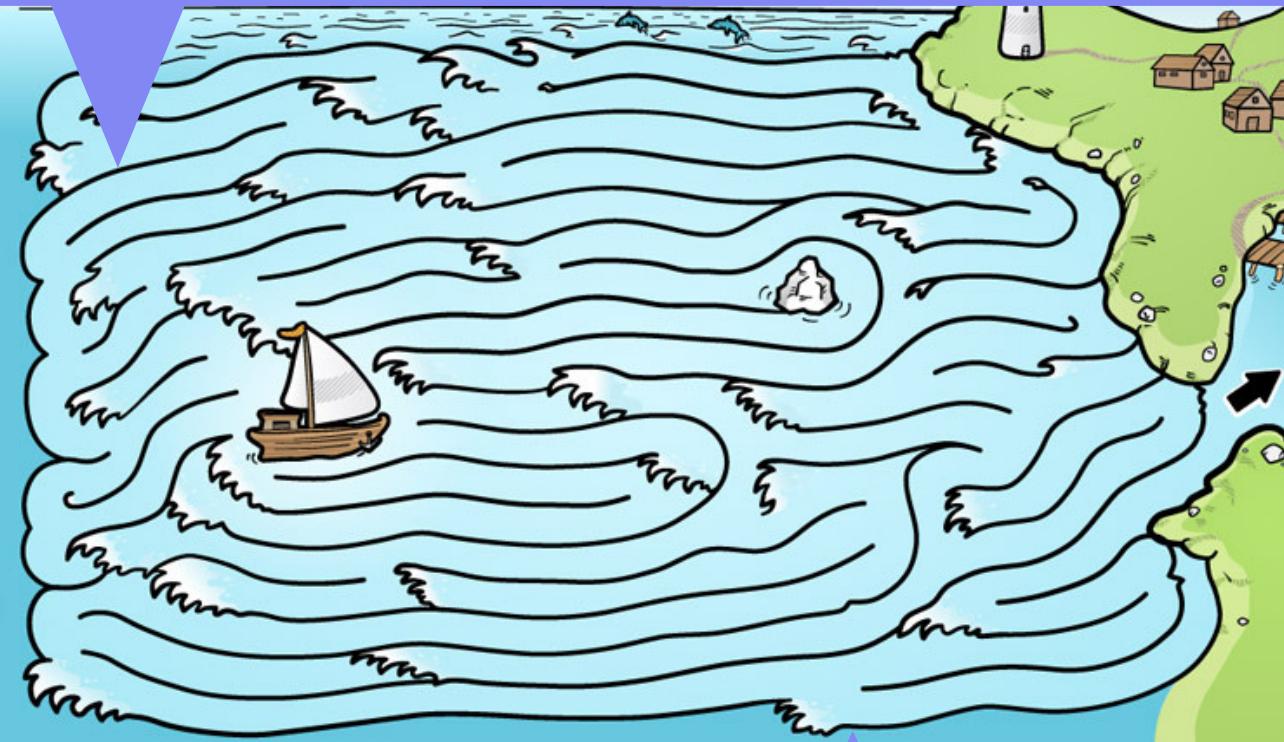

Entertainment Officer Kesia keeps worrying. She's very worried that we're all stuck on the island!
